"THE TELEPHONE" was originally written for production by the Ballet Society, and was first presented by that organization with Mr. Menotti's "The Medium" at the Heckscher Theater, New York City, February 18 to 20, 1947. In these performances Marilyn Cotlow took the part of Lucy, and Paul Kwartin appeared as Ben. Leon Barzin conducted two of the performances, Emanuel Balaban the other, while Horace Armistead designed the costumes and scenery.

The Broadway production, based on the Ballet Society's, and presented by Chandler Cowles and Efrem Zimbalist Jr. in association with Edith Lutyens, began at the Ethel Barrymore Theater, May 1, 1947. Frank Rogier took the part of Ben, Miss Cotlow that of Lucy, and Mr. Balaban was the conductor.

System 2, measures 1-4. The music is in 3/4 time. The right hand features a complex, rapid sixteenth-note pattern. The left hand plays a more melodic line with some grace notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

System 3, measures 5-8. The right hand continues with intricate sixteenth-note passages. The left hand provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The key signature changes to two sharps (F# and C#).

③

System 4, measures 9-12. The right hand has a melodic line with some rests. The left hand features a strong, rhythmic accompaniment. Dynamics include f (forte) and ff (fortissimo). The key signature has two sharps.

System 5, measures 13-16. The right hand plays a series of chords. The left hand has a rhythmic pattern. Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte). The key signature has two sharps.

First system of musical notation for piano. The right hand features a melodic line with a trill in measure 7 and a triplet in measure 8. The left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment. Dynamics include ff (fortissimo) and p dolce (piano dolce). The key signature has one sharp (F#).

④ Andantino

Second system of musical notation for piano, marked Andantino. It consists of four measures with a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a melodic line in the right hand.

Third system of musical notation for piano, measures 13-16. The right hand has a melodic line with a trill in measure 15. The left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The dynamic espr. (espressivo) is indicated.

Fourth system of musical notation for piano, measures 17-20. The right hand features a melodic line with a trill in measure 19. The left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation for piano, measures 21-24. The right hand has a melodic line with a trill in measure 23. The left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The dynamic mf espr. (mezzo-forte espressivo) is indicated.
